The Central Coast Foreclosure Collaborative (CCFC) Receives Grant to Educate Homeowners Facing Foreclosure

WATSONVILLE – (August 4, 2010) – “The Watsonville Law Center has been awarded a $20,000 grant by the Community Foundation of Santa Cruz County supported by the John and Abby Sobrato Donor-Advised Fund,” Dori Rose Inda said today. According to Rose Inda, Executive Director of the Watsonville Law Center, the grant funds support the coordination and activities of the Central Coast Foreclosure Collaborative (CCFC). The CCFC makes essential information available to homeowners at risk or facing foreclosure. The funding will make community educational forums, legal clinics, and radio and television PSAs available to the community.

“Since its inception, The Central Coast Foreclosure Collaborative has been providing excellent accessible information to the community,” Rose Inda said, “this grant will help to ensure the community continues to have access to current and reliable information and assistance with foreclosure.”

The Central Coast Foreclosure Collaborative (CCFC) is a working group of community organizations, government agencies, and nonprofits whose goal is to address the foreclosure crisis in the Central Coast region.
